GOD
Read Romans 12:1-2. Transforming our mind means that we will live our lives as Jesus would live them. Read this week’s passage to find out who places people in charge of our cities, state, and country. What does this passage instruct us to do?

CHURCH
Passages like this, and even others in Romans, may not always be easy to hear. Take time this week to pray for our church leaders to listen and obey the Spirit, and pray for our government leaders to have Jesus followers around them helping them lead in ways that honor God.

IDENTITY
Read the passage. Take time this week to reflect on the two application points from the sermon on Sunday:
1. Does your attitude toward the government honor God?
2. Do our actions toward the government honor God?

MULTIPLY
Why is it important that we evaluate our attitude and actions toward the government? What kind of testimony is that to the world around us?
